

ANDANTE

European Alliance of Catholic Women's Organisations

We can make your voice be heard

Andante is the women's voice in Europe and is the main player in building a living Europe that works for the common good and gives a more human face to Europe and the world.

Why join us?

We work through our networks in Europe and through local initiatives, for the just participation of women in society and in the church, and for the common good of all people.

We encourage and empower Catholic women in Europe to reach their full potential, both in society and in spiritual life. We bring strength and inspiration to Catholic women in their daily lives and encourage them to be active in their communities and in the church.

Andante contributes to a Catholic Church in Europe which is welcoming and liberating for all.

Who we are?

Inform, consult, coordinate and represent

The role of ANDANTE is: to inform, to consult, to coordinate and to represent. Andante is a platform for Catholic women to express their ideas, to discuss them frankly and with trust, even if they arrive at different conclusions. “We need to establish common values across our different cultures; we should be able to respond to current and emerging issues in a way that reflects Gospel values and our experience as women. We can offer the female vision of the Common Good.”

What we do?

Inform, consult, coordinate and represent

- an alliance of 18 Catholic women's associations from different European countries representing more than one million women
- we are committed to fair participation of women in society and the Church
- we represent the interests of Catholic women in Europe
- we strengthen women in their knowledge and skills
- we offer information exchange and networking
